This is a case in which when I was in Mysore district I made a recommendation in favour of the petitioner. My view is not accepted by Govt. and the proposal fell to the ground.

Annamalai Ramanujier begs for a reversion of the order. He admits that he is not poor and needy and claims the allowance in consideration of his long service.

The precedents he quotes are not favourable. In the Tirupati and Melkote cases the land allowance was granted with the grant of property.

The Seringapatam case is said to be of the year 1779.

Annadorai Iyengar's case is not analogous. He is Parpathigar of Chamarajnjier Temple which has a large annual income; and his pension is not from that source.

After carefully I have found that petitioner Annamalai Ramanujier is a beggarly who does not deserve any consideration.

The petitioner does not get any pension from Ramarajanagar temple funds. One Annadorai Iyengar (and not petitioner Annasami Ramanujiengar) was the Parpattegar and he gets the pension.

SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT
OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE,
~~GENERAL AND REVENUE~~ Zamzari DEPARTMENTS.

SIR,

In reply to your official memorandum No. 4952 (without date) received on 14.5.08 forwarding for opinion the petition of Annasawmi Ramanujaiengar of Seringapatam praying for the grant of some rice allowance from the chattram at Seringapatam, I have the honor to state that the Sub Divisional officer of French Rocks while forwarding the amildar's report recommending the grant of ½ seer of rice with condiments daily from the chattram at Seringapatam to the petitioner states that it is a matter for consideration as to whether the grant of such allowances would be a proper charge on the chattram.

2. Annasawmi Ramanujaiengar rendered rendered long service in the Sanyasi Department and was retired without pension or gratuity in August 1907. (Vide G.O. No 756-7 dated 9.8.07). He is old and short-sighted. I would therefore recommend the grant of half a seer of rice with condiments daily from the Chattram at Seringapatam in consideration of the long service rendered by him in the Department.

3. The petition received with the above and the file of papers received with the Sub Divisional officer's Yadast No 38/122 dated 23.7.08 are herewith submitted for reference.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
